SHARES

6. Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holder of any share or class of shares for the time being issued, and subject to the provisions of the Act and to this Constitution and to the provisions of any resolution of the Company, the shares in the Company shall be under the control of the Directors who may issue, allot, place under option or otherwise deal with or dispose of them to such persons on such terms and conditions with such preferred, deferred or other special rights or such restrictions whether in regard to dividend, voting or return of capital and at such time or times as they think fit. Allotment of shares

Provided that:-

- (a) The Company shall not issue shares so as to transfer a controlling interest in the Company without the prior approval of

- the Members duly signified at a Meeting of Members called for that purpose.
- (b) Every issue of shares pursuant to a share option granted to employees and/or Directors shall be approved by Members in Meetings of Members and such approval shall specifically detail the amount of shares or options to be issued to each Director.
 - (c) The rights attaching to shares of a class other than ordinary shares shall be expressed in the resolution creating the same.
 - (d) The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of the issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking equally therewith but in no respect in priority thereto.
7. The Company shall have power with the sanction of an ordinary resolution of the Company to issue preference shares carrying a right to redemption or liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company or to issue preference shares ranking equally with or in priority to preference shares already issued and the Directors may, subject to the provisions of the Act, redeem such shares on such terms and in such manner as they may think fit. Power to issue redeemable preference shares
8. Subject always to the compliance with the provisions of the Act, all other applicable laws and the Listing Requirements, the Company may, with the sanction of the Members in a Meeting of Members, purchase any of its own shares upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Directors may in their discretion deem fit and the Directors shall have the power to deal with such shares so purchased in a manner they think fit in accordance with the provisions of the Act. Purchase of own shares
9. The Company may exercise the powers conferred by Section 80 of the Act to pay to any person a commission in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the Company; provided that such commission shall not exceed ten per cent (10%) of the price at which such shares are issued, or an amount equivalent to such percentage; and the requirements of the Act shall be observed. Any such commission may be satisfied in cash or fully paid shares of the Company, in which case the provisions of the Act shall be duly complied with. The Company may also on any issue of shares pay such brokerage as may be lawful. Commission and brokerage
10. Where any shares are issued for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the construction of any works or buildings or the provision of any plant which cannot be made profitable for a lengthy period, the Company may pay interest on so much of such share capital as is for the time being paid up for the period and subject to the conditions and restrictions mentioned in the Act and may charge the same to capital as part of the cost of construction of the works, building or plant. Interest on share capital during construction
11. Except as required by law and as provided under the Rules of the Bursa Depository, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share upon any trust, and the Company shall not be bound by or required to recognise any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or any right whatsoever in respect of any share other than an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder, except as by Trust not recognised this Constitution otherwise expressly provided or as by the Act required or pursuant to any Order of Court or the Rules of the Bursa Depository.

SECURITIES ACCOUNTS

12. The Company must ensure that all new issues of Securities for which listing is sought are made by way of crediting the Securities Accounts of the Allottees with such Securities save and except where it is specifically exempted from compliance with Section 38 of the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) Act, 1991, in which event it shall so similarly be exempted from compliance with this requirement. For this purpose, the Company must notify the Bursa Depository of the names of the Allottees and all such particulars required by the Bursa Depository, to enable the Bursa Depository to make the appropriate entries in the Securities Accounts of such Allottees. Securities Accounts
13. The Company shall not cause or authorise its Registrar of Companies to cause the Securities Accounts of the Allottees to be credited with additional shares until after it has filed with the Exchange on applications for admission of such additional shares and in the case where the Exchange's approval is required, it had been notified by the Exchange that they have been authorised for listing. Crediting of Securities Account

LIEN ON SHARES

14. (a) The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on every share (not being a fully-paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the Company shall also have a first and paramount lien on all shares (other than fully-paid shares) registered in the name of the person for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the Company. Company to have a paramount lien
- (b) The Directors may at any time declare that any share shall for some specified period be exempt from the provision of this Article.
- (c) The Company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all distributions payable in respect of the share and to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay in respect of the Member or deceased Member.

The Company's lien on shares and dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares, shall be restricted to:

- (i) unpaid calls and installments upon the specific shares in respect of which such moneys are due and unpaid; and
- (ii) to such amounts as the Company may be called upon by law to pay and has paid in respect of the shares of the Member or deceased Member.

In each case, the lien extends to reasonable interest and expenses incurred because of the amount is not paid.

No Member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to exercise privilege as a Member until he shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every share held by him, together with interest and all expenses (if any).

15. For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Directors may sell the shares subject thereto, in such manner as they think fit; but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such Member, his executors or administrators or other persons recognised by the Company as owner thereof, and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment, fulfillment or discharge of such debts, liabilities or engagements, for fourteen (14) days after such notice. Enforcement of lien by sale
16. The net proceeds of any such sale after payment of costs of such sale shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards satisfaction of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue (if any) shall (subject to a like lien for the sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs. Application of proceeds of sale
17. To give effect to any sale for enforcing a lien in exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Directors may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the transfer of the shares sold to be credited into the Securities Account of the purchase thereof and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in relation to the sale. Transfer on sale under lien and protection of purchaser

CALLS ON SHARES

18. The Company may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders of such shares in the amount of calls to be paid and in the time of payment of such calls. Difference in amounts paid on shares
19. No person shall exercise any rights as a Member of the Company until his name has been entered into the Record of Depositors in accordance with the Rules of the Bursa Depository and he shall have paid all calls and moneys for the time being due and payable by him on any shares in the Company so held by him. Member not entitled to privileges or membership until all calls paid
20. The Directors may subject to the provisions of this Constitution, from time to time make such calls upon the Members in respect of all monies unpaid on their shares as they think fit, and each Member shall be liable to pay the amount of every call so made upon him to the Company in such manner and at the time and places appointed by the Directors; provided that no call shall be payable at less than thirty (30) days from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call and provided that fourteen (14) days' notice at least is given of each call. Directors may make calls
21. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed. If by the terms of the issue of any shares or otherwise any amount is made payable at any fixed time or by instalments at any fixed times such amount or instalments shall be payable on that date on which by the terms of issue the same becomes payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice had been given and all provisions hereof with respect to the payment of calls and interests thereon or to be forfeiture of shares for non-payment of calls shall apply. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine. When call is deemed made

22. If before or on the day appointed for payment thereof a call or instalment payable in respect of a share is not paid, the person from whom the same is due shall pay interest on the amount of the call or instalment at such rate not exceeding eight per cent (8%) per annum as the Directors shall fix from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment, but the Directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part. Interest on unpaid call
23. Any sum which by the terms of allotment of a share is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed date shall, for all purposes of this Constitution, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date fixed for payment, and in case of non-payment, the provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture and the like, and all the relevant provisions of this Constitution shall apply as if such sum were a call duly made and notified as hereby provided. Sums payable on allotment deemed a call
24. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money unpaid upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for and upon the money so paid in advance or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made the Company, at its sole discretion, may pay interest at such rate not exceeding without the sanction of the Company in Meetings of Members eight per cent (8%) per annum as the Member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon. Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividends and until appropriated towards satisfaction of any call shall be treated as a loan to the Company and not as part of its capital and shall be repayable at any time if the Directors so decide. Payment of calls in advance
25. Any capital paid on shares in advance of calls shall not, whilst carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits. Except in liquidation, sums paid in advance of calls shall not, until the same would but for such advance have become payable, be treated as paid up in the shares in respect of which they have been paid. Capital paid on shares in advance of calls
26. At the trial or hearing of any action for the recovery of any money due on any call, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the Member sued is entered in the register as the holder of the shares in respect of which such debt accrued, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the minute book, and that notice of such call was duly given to the Member sued in pursuance of this Constitution, and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Directors who made such call nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened and constituted nor any other matter whatsoever, but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt. Evidence of sums for calls

FORFEITURE OF SHARES

27. If any Member fails to pay the whole or any part of any call or instalment of a call on or before the day appointed for the payment thereof, the Directors may at any time thereafter, during such time as the call or instalment or any part thereof remains unpaid, serve a notice on him or on the persons entitled to the share by transmission requiring him to pay such call or instalments, or such part thereof as remains unpaid, together with interest at such rate not exceeding eight per cent (8%) per annum as the Directors shall determine, and any expenses that may have accrued by reason of such non-payment. Directors may require payment of call with interest and expenses
28. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of Notice requiring payment to contain

- fourteen (14) days from the date of the notice) on or before which such call or instalment or such part as aforesaid, and all interest and expenses that have accrued by reason of such non-payment, are to be paid. In the event of non-payment at or before the expiration date, the shares in respect of which such call was made will be liable to be forfeited. certain particulars
29. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. A forfeiture of shares shall include all dividends in respect of the shares not actually paid before the forfeiture, notwithstanding that they shall have been declared. The Directors may accept a surrender of any share when they are in a position to forfeit such share or by way of compromise of any question as to the holder being properly registered in respect thereof or in any other case allowed by law. On non-compliance with notice shares forfeited on resolution of Directors and surrender of shares
30. Where any share has been forfeited in accordance with this Constitution, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the share or to the person entitled to the share by transmission, as the case may be, within fourteen (14) days of the forfeiture and any entry of such notice having been given, and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register or Record of Depositors opposite to the share, but the provisions of this Article are directory only, and no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid. Notice of forfeiture to be given and entered in Register or Record of Depositors
31. Notwithstanding any such forfeiture as aforesaid, the Directors may, at any time before the forfeited shares have been otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture upon the terms of payment of all calls and interest due thereon and all expenses incurred in respect of the shares and upon such further terms (if any) as they shall see fit. Annulment of forfeiture
32. Every share which has been forfeited shall thereupon become the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted, or otherwise disposed of, either to the person who was before forfeiture the holder thereof, or entitled thereto, or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Directors shall think fit, and the Directors may, if necessary, authorise some person to transfer the same to such other person as aforesaid. If any shares are forfeited and sold, any residue after the satisfaction of the unpaid calls and accrued interest and expenses, shall be paid to the person whose shares have been forfeited, or his executors, administrators or assignees or as he directs. Sale of shares forfeited
33. A Member whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited shares but notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay to the Company all calls made and not paid on such shares at the time of forfeiture, together with interest thereon at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum to the day of payment as well as all expenses incurred thereby but his liability shall cease if and when the Company receives payment in full of such money in respect of the shares. Former holders of forfeited shares liable for calls made before forfeited
34. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the shares as between the Members whose share is forfeited and the Company except only such of those rights and liabilities as are by this Constitution expressly saved or as may by the Act, the Central Consequences of forfeiture

Depositories Act and the Rules of the Bursa Depository given or imposed in the case of past Members.

35. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or the Secretary of the Company, and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited or surrendered or sold to satisfy a lien on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares. Evidence of forfeiture - Statutory Declaration of forfeiture
36. The Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition thereof and the Directors may authorise some person to execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or otherwise disposed of and he shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share, and shall not be bound to see the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share. Title of purchase of forfeited share
37. The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified. Application of forfeiture provisions

TRANSFER OF SECURITIES

38. Subject to this Constitution, there shall be no restriction on the transfer of fully paid-up shares except where required by law. The transfer of any securities or class of securities of the Company shall be by way of book entry by the Bursa Depository in accordance with the Rules of the Bursa Depository and notwithstanding sections 105, 106 or 110 of the Act but subject to section 148(2) of the Act and any exemption that may be made from the compliance with section 148(1) of the Act, the Company shall be precluded from registering and effecting any transfer of securities. Transfer by book entry
39. Neither the Company nor its Directors nor any of its officers shall incur any liability for any transfer of shares apparently made by a Member or any persons entitled to the shares by reason of the death, bankruptcy or insanity of the Member, although the same may, by reason of any fraud or other cause not known to the Company or its Directors or other officers be legally inoperative or insufficient to pass the property in the shares proposed or professed to be transferred, and although the transfer may, as between the transferor and transferee be liable to be set aside, and notwithstanding that the Company may have notice that such instrument of transfer was signed or executed and delivered by the transferor in blank as to the name of the transferee, of the particulars of the shares transferred, or otherwise in defective manner. And in every such case, the transferee, his executors, administrators and assignees alone shall be entitled to be recognised as the holder of such shares and the previous holder shall, so far as the Company is concerned, be deemed to have transferred his whole title hereto. Non-liability for fraudulent transfers
40. The Bursa Depository may in its absolute discretion refuse to register any transfer that does not comply with the Central Depositories Act and the Rules of the Bursa Depository. Refusal to register transfers

41. Subject to the Central Depository Act and the Rules of the Bursa Depository, any Member may transfer all or any of the shares by instrument in writing in the form prescribed and approved by Bursa Depository. The instruments of transfer of any security shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the security until the name of the transferee is entered in the Record of Depositors in respect thereof. Enter in Record of Depositors
42. The registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such period as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty (30) days in any year or such number of days as may be prescribed by the Exchange. The Company shall give the Exchange prior written notice in accordance with the requirements of the Exchange. In relation to the closure, the Company shall give written notice in accordance with the Rules of the Bursa Depository to prepare the appropriate Record of Depositors. Closing of transfer books and register
43. Subject to the provision of this Constitution, the Directors may recognise a renunciation of any share by the Allottee thereof in favour of some other person. Recognition of renunciation of share

TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES

44. In the case of the death of a person holding Securities in the Company, the persons recognised as having any title to the interest of the Securities of the deceased shall be: Persons recognised as having title to securities under transmission of Securities
- (a) where the deceased was a sole holder, the legal representatives; and
- (b) where the deceased was a joint holder, the survivor.
45. Subject to the Rules of the Bursa Depository, any person becoming entitled to a Securities in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a holder of Securities in the Company may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Directors and subject as hereinafter provided, elect either to be registered himself as holder of the Securities or to have some person nominated by him registered as the transferee thereof, but the Directors shall, in either case, have the same rights to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the Securities by that holder of Securities before his death or bankruptcy. Death or bankruptcy of a holder of Securities
46. If the person so becoming entitled to have the Securities transferred to him, a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects must be served by him on the Company and the Bursa Depository. If he elects to have the Securities transferred to another person he shall testify his election by serving a notice in writing to that effect to the Company and on the Bursa Depository and executing to that person a transfer of the Securities. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of this Constitution relating to the rights to transfer shall be applicable to any such notice of transfer as aforesaid as if the death or bankruptcy of the holder of Securities had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that holder of Securities. Serving of notice to the Bursa Depository

The registration of the transmission of Securities shall entitle the registered holders to the same dividends and other advantages and to the same rights in relation to meetings of the Company or to voting or otherwise.

47. Where the registered holder of any Securities dies or becomes bankrupt, his personal representative or the assignee of his estate, as the case may be, shall, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the Directors in that behalf, be entitled to receive, and may give a discharge for any dividends or money payable in respect of the Securities. Person entitled to receive and give discharge for dividends
48. Where,
- (a) the Securities of the Company are listed on another stock exchange; and
- (b) the Company is exempted from compliance with Section 14 of the Central Depositories Act or Section 29 of the Securities Industry (Central Depositories) (Amendment) Act, 1998, as the case may be, under the Rules of the Bursa Depository in respect of such Securities, Transmission of Securities from other stock exchange the Company shall upon request of a Securities holder, permit a transmission of securities held by such Securities holder from the register of holders maintained by the share registrar of the Company in the jurisdiction of the other stock exchange, to the register of holders maintained by the share registrar of the Company in Malaysia and vice versa provided that there shall be no change in the ownership of such Securities.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

49. The Company may from time to time, by ordinary resolution convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock and may from time to time, in like manner, re-convert any such stock into paid-up shares of any denomination. Conversion to be at general meeting
50. When any shares have been converted into stock, the several holders of such stock may transfer their respective interests therein, or any part of such interests, in such manner as the Company in Meetings of Members shall direct, but in default of any such direction in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as and subject to which the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit. But the Directors may, if they think fit from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum. Transfer of stock
51. The several holders of stock shall be entitled to participate in the dividends and profits of the Company according to the amount of their respective interest in such stock, and such interests shall, in proportion to the amount thereof, confer on the holders thereof respectively the same privileges and advantages for the purpose of voting at meetings of the Company and for other purposes as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but so that none of such privileges or advantages, except the participation in the dividends, profits and assets of the Company, shall be conferred by any holding or part of a holding of stock as would not, if existing in shares, have conferred such privileges or advantages. Participation of stockholders in dividends

52. All such provisions of this Constitution as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and in all such provisions the words "share" and "shareholder" shall include "stock" and "stockholders". Definition

ALTERATIONS OF CAPITAL

53. (1) The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution:- Power to alter share capital
- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any part of its share capital, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived; or
- (b) Sub-divide its shares or any of the shares, whatever is in the subdivision, the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each subdivided share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the subdivided share is derived.
- (2) Anything done in pursuance of this Article shall be done in the manner provided by and subject to any conditions imposed by the Act or so far as the Act shall not be applicable then in accordance with the terms of the resolution authorising the same or so far as such resolution shall not be applicable then in such manner as the Directors deem most expedient.
54. Subject to this Constitution, the new shares shall be issued upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges annexed thereto as the Meetings of Members resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct and, in default of such direction, as the Directors may determine and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company and with a special or without any right of voting. On what conditions new shares may be issued
55. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by this Constitution any capital raised by the issuance and allotment of new shares shall be considered part of the original share capital of the Company and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of calls and instalments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender, voting and otherwise. How far new shares to rank with original shares
56. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the Company in a Meeting of Members, all new shares or other convertible securities shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the Company of Meetings of Members in proportion as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares or Securities to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares or Securities offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and, after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares or Securities offered, the Directors may dispose of those shares or Securities in such manner as they think most beneficial to the Company. The Directors may likewise also dispose of any new share or Securities which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares or Securities bear to shares or Securities held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares or Securities) cannot, in the opinion of the Directors, be conveniently offered under this Constitution. New shares to be offered to existing Members

57. 149. Before declaring any dividend and subject to due provisions having been made for any annual payment or payments in respect of any debenture sinking fund or funds, the Directors may (but shall not be under any obligation so to do) set aside out of the profit of the Company and to carry to reserves to meet depreciation or contingencies or for special dividend or bonuses or for equalising dividends or for repairing, improving and maintaining property of the Company or for such other purposes as the Directors shall in their absolute discretion think conducive to the interests of the Company, or any of them and the same may be applied accordingly from time to time in such manner as the Directors may determine and the Directors may, without placing the same to reserve, carry over any profits which they may not think it prudent to divide. The Directors may invest, Power to carry profit to reserve apply and deal with the several sums to set aside upon such investments and in such manner as they think fit, and from time to time may deal with and vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company, and may divide the reserve or reserves into such special funds as they think fit, and may employ the reserve or reserves in the business of the Company, and that without keeping the same separate from the other assets, or in purchase or redemption of debentures or debenture stock or other encumbrances on the Company's property.

| 150. | Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Directors may from time to time declare dividend to the Members out of profit of the Company available if the Company is solvent and such distribution shall be paid to the Members in proportion to the amount for the time being paid up on the shares or stock held by them respectively. Such dividend may be paid wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets and in particular of paid up shares or debentures of any other company or in any one or more of such ways; and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution, the Directors may settle the same as they think expedient and in particular may issue fractional certificates and fix the value for distribution of such specific assets or any part thereof and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Members upon the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of all parties and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Directors. | Declaration of dividends |
| 151. | Where capital is paid up in advance of calls upon the footing that the same shall carry interest such capital shall not, while carrying interest, confer a right to participate in profits. | Payment in advance of call not to participate in dividend |
| 152. | The Directors may deduct from the dividends payable to any Member all such sums of money as may be due from him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise. | Debts may be deducted |
| 153. | No dividends shall bear interest as against the Company. | Dividends not to bear interest |
| 154. | A transfer of shares shall not pass the right to any dividend declared on such shares before the registration of the transfer, provided that any dividend declared on Deposited Securities shall accrue to the Depositors whose names appear on the Record of Depositors issued to the Company or the Company's share registrar pursuant to the Rules of the Bursa Depository. | Rights to Dividend |
| 155. | The Directors may retain the dividends payable upon registered shares in respect of which any person is, under the transmission clause, entitled to become a Member, or which any person under that clause is entitled to transfer, until such person shall become a Member in respect of such shares or shall duly transfer the same, and any dividends so retained shall only be paid by the Directors to the person who next becomes a Member in respect of such shares. | Power to retain dividends in respect of transmission of shares |
| 156. | Unless otherwise directed or permitted by the relevant authorities, any dividend, interest or other money payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by direct deposit into bank account of the Members or other person as the Members may in writing direct; by cheque or warrant and sent through post to the registered address of the Member or to such | Manner of payment of dividend |

person and to such address as the Member may in writing direct; or in any other manner as the Directors so decide. Every such direct deposit into bank account or cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent or to such person as the Member may direct and the payment of such manner shall operate as a good discharge to the Company in respect of the dividend represented thereby, notwithstanding that it may subsequently appear that the cheque or warrant has been stolen or that the endorsement thereon has been forged. Every such direct deposit into bank account, cheque or warrant shall be sent at the risk of the person entitled to the money thereby represented.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES, ETC

157. The Company in Meetings of Members may upon the recommendation of the Board resolve that it is desirable to capitalise any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution and accordingly that such sum be set free for distribution amongst the Members who would have been entitled thereto if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions on condition that the same be not paid in cash but be applied either in or towards paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such Members respectively or paying up in full, credited as fully paid up to and amongst such Members in the proportion aforesaid or partly in the one way and partly in the other and the Directors shall give effect to such resolution. Bonus Issues
158. Whenever such a resolution as aforesaid in Article 157 hereof shall have been passed, the Directors shall make all appropriations and applications of the undivided profits resolved to be capitalised thereby and all allotments and issues of fully paid up shares or debentures, if any, and generally shall do all acts and things required to give effect thereto, with full power to the Directors to make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates or by payment in cash in discharging debentures of the Company or otherwise as it thinks fit for the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions and also to authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the Members entitled thereto into an agreement with the Company providing for the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid-up, of any further shares or debentures to which they may be entitled upon such capitalisation or (as the case may require) for payment by the Company on their behalf, by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the profits of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares and any agreement made under such authority shall be effective and binding on all such Members. Power of applications of undivided profits

ACCOUNTS

159. The Directors shall cause proper accounting and other records to be kept and shall distribute copies of the financial statements and other documents as required by the Act and shall from time to time determine whether, in any particular case or class of cases, or generally, and to what extent, and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations, the accounting records and other records of the Company or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of Members and no Member (not being a Director) shall have any rights of inspecting any account or book or accounting records or document of the Company except as conferred by the Act or authorised by the Directors or by a resolution of Accounts and books to be kept

163. Every person who by operation of law, transfer, transmission or other means whatsoever, shall become entitled to any share, shall be bound by every notice in respect of such share, which previously to his name and address being entered in the Register or the Record of Depositors as the registered holder of such share, shall have been duly given to the person from whom he derives the title to such share.
- Persons bound by notice

164. Any Member described in the Register and Record of Depositors by an address not within Malaysia who shall from time to time give the Company an address within Malaysia at which notices may be served upon him, shall be entitled under this Constitution, but save as aforesaid, only Members described in the Register and Record of Depositors by an address within Malaysia shall be entitled to receive any notice from the
- Members abroad not entitled to notice unless they give address

Company.

165. Notice of every Meeting of Members shall be given to every Member, every Director of the Company, the auditors of the Company and all other persons entitled to receive notice of meetings under the Act or the Listing Requirements or by operation of law. Persons entitled to receive notice of Meetings of Members
166. A notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to any share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a Member addressed to them by name or by the title of representatives or trustees of such deceased or bankrupt Member, at his last known address (if any) in Malaysia supplied the purpose of such persons as aforesaid or (until such an address has been supplied) by giving the notice in the manner in which the same would have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred. Notice in case of death or bankruptcy
167. A notice or other documents is deemed served by the Company to a Member:- When service effected
- (a) Where the notice or document is sent in hard copy by post, on the day after the time when the letter containing the same is put into the post, and in proving such service or sending it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice or document was properly addressed and put into the post office as a prepaid letter.
- (b) Where the notice or documents is sent by electronic means:-
- (i) via electronic mail, at the time of transmission to the Member's electronic mail address pursuant to Article 162(b)(i), provided that the Company has record of the electronic mail being sent and that no written notification of delivery failure is received by the Company; or
- (ii) via publication on the Company's website, on the date the notice of document is first made available on the Company's website provided that the notification on the publication of the notice or documents on the website has been given pursuant to Article 162(b)(ii); or

- (c) In the event that service of a notice or document pursuant to Article 167(b) is unsuccessful, the Company shall within two (2) markets days from discovery of delivery failure, make alternative arrangements for service by serving the notice or documents in hard copy in accordance with Article 162(a) hereof.
168. A Member's address, electronic mail address and any other contact details provided to Bursa Depository shall be deemed as the last known address, electronic mail address and contact details respectively for the purposes of communication including but not limiting to service of notices and/or documents to the Member. Last known address for service

WINDING UP

169. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution among the Members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the Members in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up, the assets available for distribution among the Members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed among the Members in proportion to the capital, at the commencement of the winding up, paid on the shares held by them respective. But this Article is to be without prejudice to the rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions. Distribution of assets
170. If the Company shall be wound up, the liquidators may, with the sanction of a special resolution and any other sanction required by the Act, divide among the Members in specie any part of the assets of the Company and any such division may be otherwise than in accordance with the existing rights of the Members, but so that if any division is resolved on otherwise than in accordance with such rights the Members shall have the same rights of dissent and consequential rights if such resolution were a special resolution passed pursuant to the Act. A special resolution sanctioning a transfer or sale to another company duly passed pursuant to the Act may in like manner authorise the distribution of any shares or other consideration receivable by the liquidators amongst the Members otherwise than in accordance with their existing rights, and any such determination shall be binding upon all the Members, subject to the right of dissent and consequential rights conferred by the Act. Distribution of assets in specie
171. No commission or fee shall be paid to a liquidator or Director on the voluntary liquidation of the Company unless it shall have been approved by the Members in a Meeting of Members. The amount of such payment shall be notified to all Members at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting at which this is to be considered. Remuneration of liquidator or Director

INDEMNITY

172. Every Director, auditor, secretary and other officer of the Company for the time being, shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all losses or liabilities (including any such liability as is mentioned in the Act) which he may sustain or incur in or about the execution of the duties of his office, or otherwise in relation thereto, and no such Director or other officer or auditor shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to or be incurred by the Company in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto. But this Article shall only have effect in so far as its provisions are not avoided by the Act. Officers entitled to indemnity

SECRECY CLAUSE

173. Save as may be expressly provided by the Act, no Member shall be entitled to enter into or upon or inspect any premises or property of the Company nor to require discovery of information respecting any detail of the Company's trading or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery or trade or secret process which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which, in the opinion of the Secrecy Clause

Directors it would be inexpedient in the interests of the Members of the Company to communicate to the public.

ALTERATION OF CONSTITUTION

174. No amendment or alteration shall be made to this Constitution unless the same has been passed by special resolution as provided in the Act. Alteration of Constitution

EFFECT OF LISTING REQUIREMENTS

175. This Constitution shall be construed with strict compliance to the Listing Requirements in that:- Listing Requirements
- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Constitution, if the Listing Requirements prohibit an act being done, the act shall not be done.
 - (2) Nothing contained in this Constitution prevents an act being done that the Listing Requirements require to be done.
 - (3) If the Listing Requirements require an act to be done or not to be done, authority is given for that act to be done or not to be done (as the case may be).
 - (4) If the Listing Requirements require this Constitution to contain a provision and they do not contain such a provision, this Constitution is deemed to contain that provision.
 - (5) If the Listing Requirements require this Constitution not to contain a provision and they contain such a provision, this Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision.
 - (6) If any provision of this Constitution is or becomes inconsistent with the Listing Requirements, this Constitution is deemed not to contain that provision to the extent of the inconsistency.

Notwithstanding the above, nothing herein shall prevent the Company from applying to the exchange for any waiver of any of the Listing Requirements and in the event the compliance or observance of any of the Listing Requirements is waived by the Exchange, the Company shall be exempted from such compliance.

COMPLIANCE WITH STATUTES, REGULATIONS AND RULES

176. The Company shall comply with provisions of the relevant governing statutes, regulations and rules as may be amended, modified or varied from time to time, or any other directive or requirement imposed by the Exchange, the Bursa Depository and other appropriate authorities to the extent required by law notwithstanding any provision in this Constitution to the contrary. Compliance with Statutes, Regulations and Rules
